

Wednesday, August 6, 2003

Duxbury Clipper

Farfar's Wins Best of Boston Honor

Boston Magazine has named Farfar's Danish Ice Cream Shop the "Best of Boston" in the "Best Ice Cream of the Southern Suburbs" category. This is the second consecutive year that the store has won the award, which was announced in the August issue of the magazine.

"We're totally delighted, surprised, and proud," said Farfar's co-owner Andra Carlton. "We had no idea it was coming."

The owners, in fact, did not even know about the award until one of their employees rushed into the store with a copy of the magazine, shouting, "We made it!" Carlton said.

Farfar's was not the only Duxbury institution to make the Best of Boston list. Duxbury Beach was also named the "Best Beach of the Southern Suburbs."

The annual Best of Boston awards, now in their 30th year, are given to the best of the best in categories ranging from food and restaurants, to shopping, the arts, and recreation.